BIG DEAL IN MINING STOCK.

Geo. Gray Sells His Entire Holding in Louisville and Marion Mining Co. Stock to Harry Watkins.

The True Fissure Vein Struck at the Miller Mine Which Shows Up Rich in Carbonate.

A PRESS reporter spent a day or two at the Miller mine last week and was made perfectly at home by the genial and energetic Supt., Mr. Fred Clement, whom we found in a particularly jolly mood. For a short time previously the vein of carbonate had disappeared having overlapped and jumped over to the opposite side of the big open out, and by accident Mr. Clement had just uncovered what is satisfied is the true fissure vein, which has already been uncovered for a distance of twenty feet and shows up rich along the all of the open out. Every indication points to this as the true fissure vein and that it contains veins of fine mineral. We spent one half hour or more in the out company with Mr. Clement, examining the rich ore being dug out by the miners and admiring the perfect railway system devised by Mr. Clement for transporting the ore and waste to the hoist and from thence to the various dumps. They now have on hand six or eight car loads of lump and sand zinc ready for shipment, and I saw several of those two and three hundred pound chunks of ore spoken of in last week's Press.

The prospect at this mine is certainly bright just now, and the Marion Mineral company have the right man at the helm in Fred Clement. The perfect regularity and clock-work precision with which everything moved was at once noted; no laggards nor trifling there. The machinery, in charge of Geo. Russell, is of the finest pattern and is run without a hitch or jar. All in all, we should assert with confidence that in the Miller mine the Marion Mineral company have a future dividend payer, and that the supervision of it is in the right hands.

One of the most important and significant deals made in mining lands and stocks in this section recently was consummated Saturday night when Harry Watkins purchased the entire interest of G. C. Gray in the Louisville and Marion Mining Co. While the figure has not been made public, enough is known for us to state that quite a handsome profit is left in Mr. Gray's hands, and one which it requires four figures to represent. Mr. Watkins was elected a director to take the place of Mr. Gray, who resigned to take effect at time of transfer of stock. The Louisville and Marion Mining company is one of our youngest companies, but is enterprising and has been most fortunate in their prospecting and in the selection of mineral leases. They now own several valuable tracts in this county, and also in Illinois, and each one is a profit maker. Much of their success is due to Mr. J. M. Persons, who will now be assisted by Harry Watkins. To gether they make a strong team, as good as could be had. While we congratulate Mr. Gray on his handsome profit, mineral men generally are disposed to regard Mr. Watkins' judgment as very good in this and all other mining deals into which he has ever entered.

Mr. Joel Farmer is working a number of hands on the Marion Beard place. He tells us that he is getting out some very fine lead and zinc at a depth of 20 feet. There are two other veins on this property that are not developed, but the surface indications shows them to be two fine veins. Mr. Farmer will sink shafts on both of these veins, and no doubt he will strike rich mineral at a shallow depth. The mineral right of this property belongs to Mr. Haury, Mr. George Orider and others of Marion. This company is also opening up mines near Gracey, on what Prof Wright says is a very rich property.

An immense boiler is loaded on a specially built wagon and is now standing on depot street ready to start on its journey to the Riley mine. It is one of the largest ever seen here and is for the Marion Zinc Co. It weighs 30,000 pounds (15 tons).

Mr. Harry Watkins has bought an interest in the Louisville and Marion Mining Co. We do not know whether Mr. Watkins will take the management of the company or not, as we understand he is very busy with his clay mines in Tennessee and Pipersburg, Ky.

The largest lump of spar that was ever broken was broken in the Memphis mines last week. It had to be drilled and shot with dynamite before it could be taken out of the mines. It weighed about a ton and a half, probably more.

KENTUCKY POLITICS.

Tom Watson has written a history that will live. He is also the author of a novel that ranks with Uncle Tom's Cabin as a study of two conditions. He is a many-sided man and, interesting in everything he does; but when he becomes a stool pigeon of the Republicans, and while posing as a candidate for President plays into the hands of Roosevelt, the avowed enemy of the South, he not only makes his cause ridiculous but destroys whatever character or prestige he may have gained from his former honorable affiliations.

Governor Beckham will open the campaign in Kentucky October 3rd. On that day thousands of other eloquent Democrats will set the ball rolling in the various districts. It will be a concerted movement against the ranks of the enemy and there will be no cessation of the good work until the polls close in November. Although the Republicans are showing no signs of life, and have practically conceded the State to the Democrats, Chairman Hagar and his associates of the Campaign Committee are going to labor as hard as if the State were debatable ground. It will be a heart-warming message to Democrats everywhere when Kentucky goes 40,000 for Parker and Davis.

Henry Watterson is doing the best work of his life in supporting the Democratic ticket. His articles on Judge Parker have a distinct value because they come from personal knowledge of the man. They recall Mr. Watterson's able leadership of the Tilden campaign, when as a young man he won his spurs as a political manager. Not only in its editorial columns but in its news department the Courier-Journal covering in the most interesting fashion every important feature of the National contest.

Godfrey Hunter, through the motivations of the office holding ring, has been defeated for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Eleventh district. It is not only for a Democratic newspaper to grow enthusiastic over Hunter. He has shown himself to be but a time-serving, scheming trickster, ever since his entrance into politics, but even paint him as black as he is and he is not any worse than the gang that has conspired to put him out of business. Its principal members are former Democrats, who either hold Federal offices or have hopes of getting their noses into the political manager.

Some one acting in the interest of the Republican party is urging the Populists to nominate candidates in four or five districts of this State, where in the past they have cast a good-sized vote. There is an pretense if such candidates are named they will have a ghost of a chance to win, but it is hoped by the National Republican committee, and is part of their plan to take enough votes from the Democracy to elect Republicans to Congress in those districts. There is every prospect that the next House of Representatives will be Democratic and the Republicans are making desperate efforts to retain it. The friends of Tom Watson, who admit his courage and ability, are surprised that he will let himself be so transparent a scheme.

General J. R. Weaver has been making speeches through Indiana for Parker and Davis. Wherever he went he was greeted by crowds and he reports the Democrats as most enthusiastic. Gen Weaver was the Populist nominee for President on two occasions. They have confidence in his judgment and integrity and thousands of them will follow his lead and defeat the Republican ticket. A vote for Watson is a vote thrown away or a vote to elect Roosevelt, and no

COL. COLSON DEAD.

Middlesboro, Ky. Sept 28.—Col. David G. Colson, former Congressman from the Eleventh district and Colonel of the Fourth Kentucky Regiment during the Spanish-American war, died last night at 8 o'clock.

Col. Colson has been in poor health for several years, though his death was unexpected. He was taken suddenly ill Monday evening with nervous prostration, losing consciousness about midnight, and sank rapidly till the end.

He is survived by a wife, mother, one brother, and several sisters. He was one of the most prominent Republicans in the State, having been twice elected to Congress. He resigned his seat in the House and organized the 4th Kentucky regiment. It was while stationed at Anniston, Ala., that trouble arose between Col. Colson and Lieut. Scott, of the same regiment, in which the Colonel was shot. This later resulted in the death of Scott at Frankfort in 1900, at Col. Colson's hands.

Col. Colson, while a Republican was never a bitter partisan, and had many friends who were Democrats. He was a man of many attainments, brilliant as a banquet speaker, absolutely "game," physically and morally, and a genial companion. In Frankfort he was very popular.

One of Many.

H. A. Tisdale, of Summerton, N. C., suffered for twenty years with Piles. Specialists were employed and many remedies used but relief and permanent good was found only in the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. This is only one of the many, many cures that have been effected by this wonderful remedy. In buying Witch Hazel Salve it is only necessary to see that you get the genuine DeWitt's, made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. in Chicago, and a cure is certain. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures all kinds of piles, cuts, burns, bruises, eczema, tetter, ring-worm, skin diseases, etc. Sold by Woods and Orme, Druggists.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

Renewed confidence in the business situation is believed to be on the increase, but it is not entirely of the over sanguine variety, which is satisfied with theories rather than facts. Outside of distinctly financial and speculative circles, a conservative attitude is still maintained in trade quarters, but sentiment is inclined to take a hopeful view of the future. Despite reports of frost damage to corn, and a shortage of the wheat crop compared with that of last year, harvest prospects give assurance that the final income will result in great increment to the country's wealth. The volume of business shows an increase, and manufacturers are preparing for prosperous general conditions.

Gets Pay for Old Stumps.

Turpentine can be extracted from an old pine stump and this fact is the basis of a new industry reported from northern Minnesota. The promoters of the novel enterprise are asking farmers for the privilege of clearing their land of stumps.

Such a proposal comes to the owner of a cut-over farm, whose ribs are sore from contact with the plow handles in futile efforts to dodge the obstructive stump, like a message of deliverance. All the promoter wants is the stumps, and the farmer sincerely wants him to have them, so a bargain is easily struck.

The turpentine men go on the land with a stump puller and extract all the remnants of the forest, hauling them away to the plant where the turpentine is extracted and all the stumps, pine and hardwood, are burned for charcoal. It is asserted that the stumps are rich in turpentine and that the process yields good financial returns.

Hitherto the manufacture of turpentine has been practically confined to the south, where the yellow pine is very rich in all by products. White pine yields them in comparatively small quantities. It is not likely that the industry will ever reach great proportions in the north, but as long as the turpentine man finds his raw material cheap and easily accessible he is likely to carry on the good work.

What Minnesota is more interested in is the elimination of the stumps. Some cut-over land really needs them to decay and thus enrich the sandy soil, but there are large acres of good farming land, especially adapted to potatoes, red clover and other crops, that will be much more valuable when entirely cleared. It is an enormous labor for the farmer to clear a quarter section of these obstructions. When it is done he can put in a larger crop acreage and raise more to the acre, but the clearing means years of labor. If he can have it done for him by the turpentine and charcoal producer, he will not begrudge his benefactor a handsome profit.

Wise Sayings.

The man of thought looks out over the struggling millions of men and feels that there is only one being greater than man—his Creator.

A man with a poor voice has no business monkeying with the law. It takes a musical voice to wheedle the soul of a jury.

Don't trust a man or woman too far because they claim to be virtuous, because the pretense of virtue in the soul serves the same purpose as a pretense of patriotism in the political thief.

Gossip is as natural as the perfume of roses; even the mountain and rocks will send forth an echo to blash a boisterous cry all over the country.

MINING MATTERS.

The New mine, which is closed down temporarily has quite a lot of fine ore on the dump.

Mr. Kates, of Owensboro, Ky., spent three or four days in our mining field last week and took options on a large tract of mineral land.

W. Miller, of the Louisville and Marion Mining company, whose home is in the former city, was here Saturday to attend a direct meeting.

C. H. Whitehouse has gotten settled comfortably in his cozy home on Bellville street, and has ordered it equipped with electric lights.

Mr. William Miller, of Louisville, was in Marion last week. He was here in the interest of the Louisville and Marion Mining company. He made one trip to the mines and was well pleased with the outlook.

The company who recently purchased the Donkey farm from Cashier Hayward have made a crosscut on the property near Sheridan and have taken out some very rich ore of lead, zinc and fluor spar. They have a large amount of lumber and heavy timber already on the ground and are evidently making preparations to push things.

John G. Delker, of Owensboro, capitalist and manufacturer, was in the city Tuesday and met his Sept. A. B. Taylor here, in consultation as to certain conditions at the Marion Beard mines, in which he is a large stockholder. This is a fine property, one of the best in the field. Mr. Delker left for Owensboro at 3:35 same day.

This afternoon Mr. David Clark who has so long been recognized as one of our leading tobacco dealers, leaves for Clarksville, Tenn., to assume charge of the Imperial Tobacco company's interests in that section. Mr. Clark's headquarters will be in Clarksville, but his authority will extend to Springfield, Hopkinsville, etc., in fact to all the operations of the company in what is known as the Clarksville District. -Henderson Journal.

Mr. Clark is well known here, being a stockholder and largely interested in many properties, especially the Farmer land purchased of Senator Deboe.

Ed McAfee and Jodie Dollar are prospecting on the Davenport farm near Levisa. The farm formerly belonged to E. L. Franklin and when he sold he retained the mineral rights and afterwards conveyed it to W. A. Davidson, who in turn sold to Dollar and McAfee. They have fine prospects, being right on the surveyed route of the Columbia vein, and only a little distance from where Charlie La Rue has opened a fine vein. Mr. Dollar has several hands at work and is superintending the work himself, and ere many days we expect to hear him cry, Eureka!

John L. Tonkin, the coal operator, was seriously hurt at Blackford last Friday night, by his horse running away and throwing him out of his buggy. The experience was quite painful and might have been much worse and Mr. Tonkin is receiving the congratulations of his friends at not being killed. The accident occurred as he was driving into Blackford to take the train for this city. When about a mile from the station they met a traction engine and the horse became unmanageable, and when the lines broke he whirled and upset the buggy, throwing Mr. Tonkin out and stunning him so that he could not at first raise himself up. He is getting better and hopes soon to be out.

Wilborn and Skinner of Sturgis have leased 175 acres of coal land near Gladstone of Robt. L. Moore of this city. The opening of the slope is only 250 yards from the R. R. track, but the switch they are building is 350 yards long and strikes the I. C. rail road one mile south of Blackford. The four foot vein of coal is of exceptional quality, being the old Bella Mines vein, and the same one worked by Barnby and Hargrave. "Kit and Jack." That coal as every one remembers was as good as the best ever used here, and has a reputation that will last as long as coal is used. Wilborn and Skinner will mine not less than 150,000 bushels per annum as per their contract. They have completed their tippie for repairing tools.

UNIQUE INDIAN RELIC

Mr. Gordon G. Hammond brought into this office Saturday something in the way of an Indian relic. It is a canoe shaped stone, about ten inches in length, five inches in width and three inches in thickness and weighs about five pounds. Inscribed on this stone is the picture of a canoe, with its two paddles lying alongside. Near this is the representation of a fish swimming in the water. Various other hieroglyphics are inscribed on the stone, and though plainly discernable, are unintelligible to the Press reporter.

This stone was found in a large mound on the farm of Mr. Henry Young, south of town, and was presented to Mr. Hammond by his granddaughter, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Young. Though the carving and engraving on this stone was doubtless done centuries ago by the Indians or mound builders, a great deal of skill is displayed, and the work would compare favorably with much of the twentieth century engraving.

USED A SHOT GUN.

Miners Become Involved in a Fight at Memphis Mines.

Monday night at the Memphis mines after the men had come up out of the shaft, a quarrel took place between Jack and Jim Armstrong and John Ramsey and Odie Harness which resulted in a fight, during which it is said Ramsey and the two Armstrongs united their forces against Harness. The latter finding himself overpowered by numbers, started to run, when Ramsey opened fire on him with a shot gun, several shots taking effect. He came to town and had his wounds dressed and though severe, they are pronounced to be not serious.
During the affair stray shot also struck a boy named Lynn and Tom Barker, who were bystanders. Dr. G. E. Shively was called and extracted the shot and none of the wounds are reported to be serious.

AN OLD LAND MARK GONE.

The old N. R. Black residence was torn down this week and will be entirely removed and the street extended through the lot. The street will run over the spot on which the historic old home stood. This was probably the oldest house in Marion and was built over a half century ago, and in early days it was one of the largest houses in this section, but like many old landmarks it stood in the path of progress and had at last to surrender to the inevitable. Its former owner Judge N. R. Black was one of the brainy men of his times and was an eminent jurist, the equal of any at this bar. His daughter, Mrs. W. D.
Haynes, the only one of his children left residing here.

What Was It?

A few nights ago Grover and Pierce Brown, who live south of town, went to the woods with their dogs to hunt for some persons and such other game as might come in their way. In a short time their dogs "barked" and the boys hastening forward, found something in a tree, which, in the darkness, they took to be a coon. They succeeded in getting the object from the tree, and a desperate fight took place between it and the dogs, in which the dogs came out second best. Pierce, fearing his dogs would be "killed up," went to their assistance and was attacked by the beast receiving a severe scratch on the throat and otherwise mutilated in different parts of the body. He succeeded in extracting himself and boys and dogs "look to their heads." The boys went home and Pierce had his wounds properly attended to, but they are at a loss to know just what kind of a beast it was—wildcat, panther, catamount—but they are satisfied it was not a coon. Since then a number of persons have secured the woods of that section in search of the animal but so far have failed to come up with it.

Resaca, Monterey and Buena Vista were won; Moro Castle was silenced, the heights of Cerro Gordo, Chapultepec Contreras and Chertubusco stormed, the Bishop's Palace captured, and the proud city of the Aztecs lay at the mercy of an American Major General. No "General Staffs" in those days. No bedizened ball-room gallants to storm those heights and take those cities. The bone and sinew of the land did it—just the plain, "common people."

Ab, well, those were the days of the green leaf; we are now in the days of the brown; and so wags the world.

Ere this is read by the readers of the PRESS, the spirit of Postmaster-General Henry C. Payne will doubtless have passed into the land of shadows. The last bulletin from his bedside read: "The Postmaster-General is sinking rapidly and will last but a short time." Mr. Payne has for years been a prominent figure in the politics of the country and his death at this time would be a serious loss to his party and to the Administration.

Last week three unsuccessful attempts were made to destroy the $4,000,000 battleship Connecticut now building at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and the vessel is now being closely guarded by United States Marines. The Connecticut will be next to the largest battleship in the world, with 17,000 indicated horse power and will carry a battery of 14-inch barbette guns.

Sir William Vernon-Harcourt, the most popular and distinguished political orator in England, died very suddenly on Saturday last. The announcement of his death was received with sincere sorrow and regret, not only throughout the United Kingdom, but in the United States as well.

Hon Samuel J. Pugh has declined to accept the Republican nomination for Congress in the Ninth district. This is one of the three Kentucky districts that Chairman Ernst proposed to "wrest from the Democrats," but it would seem that Sam Pugh don't have much faith in this "wresting" process.

Roosevelt's plan of dealing with International questions is to "walk softly, but carry a big stick." In other words the peace of the world is constantly menaced by this amateur warrior who had rather fight than eat.

The political guns, big and little, have been blazing away all over the country during the past two weeks, and still the voters of neither party seem aroused to a pitch of fanatical enthusiasm. Why this apathy?

News at Democratic headquarters from all over the State indicates that there was an unusually large Democratic registration on Tuesday, thus assuring the full vote of the party in November.

Hon H. D. Newcomb, of Louisville has resigned his seat in the Legislature in order to clear away any doubt as to his eligibility as a Presidential Elector.

The boys in Marion seemed to "catch on" to the registration trick all right and the greater portion of the town vote was registered Tuesday.

THE ISSUE.

The live questions of the campaign can be summed up in a few words.

Do the people of the United States want for the next four years, a Constitutional government or a military hierarchy?

Shall we return to the Jeffersonian simplicity practiced under the Cleveland administration, or shall we elect Roosevelt and endorse the extravagance of the last four years.

Shall the tariff be revised by the friends of the masses and for the common weal, as promised in the Democratic platform, or shall it continue to be exploited for the benefit of the robber trusts and corporations?

Shall we do justice to the Filipinos and give them their independence, or shall we continue to maintain a Government that deprives them of their right to control their own affairs and make them slaves instead of freemen?

Shall the Government be administered solely for the benefit of the Trusts or shall the people at least have a representative in the White House, in the person of Judge Parker, who will defend their rights against the encroachment of those who are enriching themselves at the expense of the tax payers.

These are the important questions of the campaign and it remains for the Democrats of Kentucky to answer whether they will remain true to their Democratic record, or surrender to the hosts of Plutocracy led by Roosevelt and financed by Pierrepont Morgan and the Standard Oil Co.

HE'S A WINNER

Olle James is so certain of reelection that he can afford to go into other districts, and even to other States, and help his fellow Democrats. He is certain this year to repeat his success as a stump speaker in the last campaign. His voice will reach the remotest limits of any county and his arguments will penetrate the cavernous depths of the duldest brain. After the opening speeches he will join Gov. Beckham in a tour of the State.

REGISTRATION DAY.

Quite a Full Poll Came to the Front on Registration Day.

The voting places in the various precincts in this city and in Dycusburg, in this county were opened for registration Tuesday, and the voters at an early hour began for the first time to register their names enabling them to participate in the election of November. The result is satisfactory, showing from the number so registering that few failed to show up. The result would also show that little change will be made in the election as to politics as compared to previous elections. In the five precincts of Marion 181 registered as Republicans, 161 as Democrats, 7 as Independents and 2 as Populists and 1 as Prohibitionists. The recent extension of the city limits gave the Republicans advantage over the Democrats, compared with former years, as it took in a large colored population. Considering this the Democrats have cause to be satisfied over the indicated result in November.

In Dycusburg the Democrats registering compared to the Republicans was 1 to 1, indicating a Democratic gain in that precinct. We give below the registration by precincts

Marion No. 1.—Rep. 54; Dem. 16; Ind. 1. Total 71.
Marion No. 2.—Rep. 35; Dem. 28; Ind. 3; Pop. 2. Total 68.
Marion No. 3.—Rep. 38; Dem. 38; Ind. 2; Pop. 2. Total 77.
Marion No. 4.—Rep. 26; Dem. 22. Total 48.
Marion No. 5.—Rep. 31; Dem. 10; Ind. 1. Total 72.

REV. JOINER

The Much Beloved Minister Of the M. E. Church Assigned to Russellville.

Rev. T. V. Joiner, the much beloved minister of the M. E. church South who will leave and go to Russellville. Mr. Joiner and his family will be much missed here and there is universal regret that the laws of the church make it necessary for the pastors to change locations every four years. Mr. Joiner and his family will carry away with them the respect, sympathy and affection of a large circle of friends in Marion regardless of denomination. His own church is especially partial to him and resolutions passed by the board of trustees is published below.

Marion, Ky., September 19, 1904.
At the Fourth Quarterly Conference for the current year of the M. E. church South, Marion, Ky., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz: Whereas our Pastor, Rev. T. V. Joiner has served this charge for the past four years and under the laws of our church he cannot remain longer, and whereas he has done such efficient work in building up our church, financially, numerically and spiritually and by his help has made the duties of this board, which are sometimes a burden, pleasant and helpful:

Therefore be it resolved that we indeed regret the necessity for his removal but submit cheerfully to the laws of our church, trusting that the good seed that he has sown in our midst will continue to produce an abundant harvest to the honor and glory of God and that Brother Joiner will reap an abundant reward from his labors among us.

We heartily commend him to the love, prayers and support of the people to whom he may be sent.

Respectfully submitted

Dr. T. Atchison Frayer has been suffering greatly with a swollen ear drum. He was compelled to go to Evansville last week to a specialist to have an examination made. When he reached the sanitarium it was not long until they had him on an operating table as it was seen that the rising must be lanced and at once. The operation was quite painful, but brought the patient some relief and he was able to return home next day and while he is up and around he is not relieved entirely of the suffering and it may be a second operation will have to be performed.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME Are Never Without Peruna in the House for Catarrhal Diseases.

W. D. WATSON,
Clovis, Fresno
County, Cal., writes:

"God bless you for what you have done for me. The rheumatism has all disappeared, and to-day all is cleared up. How well you look! I tell them yes, and I owe it all to Dr. Hartman for his good advice to me. To-day I feel as free from pain as I ever was. The rainy season has set in here, but the change hasn't affected me as it used to. I am very thankful that I have found out that you can and will help the suffering ones that will follow your advice. Several have asked me what cured me, and I tell them. They get the medicine then. We keep Peruna in the house. My daughter has two sons, and they keep well and go to school, and they take the medicine every day."

"My wife was troubled with a pain in her side for years. Now she is taking your medicine and is real smart. I will do all I can for you and for those who need your advice."

Mr. Jno. O. Atkinson, Independence, Mo., Box 272, writes:

"Your remedies do all that you claim for them, and even more. Catarrh cannot exist where Peruna is taken according to directions. Peruna completely cured my wife and I of catarrhal troubles."

Mrs. A. B. Schwandt, Sanborn, Minn., writes:

"I have been troubled with rheumatism and catarrh for twenty-five years. Could not sleep day or night. After having used Peruna I can sleep and nothing bothers me now. If I ever am affected with any kind of sickness Peruna will be the medicine I shall use. My son was cured of catarrh of the larynx by Peruna."—Mrs. A. B. Schwandt.

Why Old People are Especially Liable to Systemic Catarrh.

When old age comes on, catarrhal diseases come also. Systemic catarrh is almost universal in old people.

This explains why Peruna has become so indispensable to old people. Peruna is their safeguard. Peruna is the only remedy yet devised that meets these cases exactly.

Such cases cannot be treated locally; nothing but an effective systemic remedy could cure them. This is exactly what Peruna is.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. H. full state:

Induced Dr. Howard Company to Make Special Price

After a great deal of effort and correspondence Wood & Orme the popular druggists, have succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co., to make a special half price introductory offer on the regular fifty cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief, but it makes permanent cures. Better than Pills

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is a purgative medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25c a bottle by Woods & Orme, Druggists. If troubled with a weak digestion try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will do you good. For sale by Woods & Orme, Druggists.

THE REAL "YELLOW PERIL."

Last winter when, among those of the Russians who were not hoping for war, and the defeat of their own country, I inquired the grounds for their contemptuous underestimate of the Japanese, I scarcely ever got for reply more than the citation of Russia's one hundred and thirty millions of people, her possession of one seventh of the dry land of the earth, and the Cossacks. The discussion usually closed with the assertion: "One Cossack can whip ten of those little yellow monkeys."

This fact is based partly on the impression which the Cossacks made upon Western Europe, as long ago as the Seven Years War, and which was heightened by their disorganization at Napoleon's retreat from Moscow. Napoleon himself pronounced them perfect masters of partisan warfare, furious to attack and impossible to reach, and would not remember having made a prisoner of a single one of them. Finally he had the Cossacks in mind when he burned Europe that, unless checked by such a powerful unit as he had sought to construct Russia would overthrow the world. That Napoleon's prediction has not been forgotten, may be inferred from the recent assault on the various quarters that the real "yellow peril," in the possibility of the organization of the Mongol hordes by Russia and that a Sino-Japanese Khan may direct a new Golden Horde against the West. October Century.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Dwyer of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was a most yellow, eyes sore, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electro-Bitters, to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Guaranteed at Woods & Orme's drug store.

A Novel Device.

At Charlottenburg, Germany, recently, a novel device to protect firemen from smoke and flames while fighting fire at close quarters was tested publicly. The invention consists of an annular mouthpiece, situated a little back of the aperture in the nozzle of a fire hose, and capable of forming in front of the man holding the nozzle a circular screen of water. The stream from the nozzle is not interfered with, and the fireman can see through the transparent screen which protects him. The angle of projection of the radiating screen can be varied at pleasure. — Exchange.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

WINE OF CARDUI.
I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any other medicine I ever used, and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation, which completely prostrated me. Pains radiated through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-sent to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Wilhelmina Swann
Treasurer, Fortified Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headache means female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

POISON IN BAKED FISH.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 29.—The Mulligan family have received directly from the State Chemist, Dr. Alfred Peter, his report on the fish of poisoned salmon set before them on Saturday. The chemist says he examined about one fourth of the contents of the dish and that he estimates, reckoning that it was equally distributed throughout the food that there must have been about ten ounces, or enough to have dangerously poisoned from six to eight persons. The poison was distributed throughout the food and not on the top, as had been stated and was put into the salmon before it was baked.

The actual amount of real estate in Kentucky controlled by Judge Mulligan, according to the assessors books, is $13,400. Of this $13,450 is the estate of the late Daniel Mulligan. The property is the bone of contention in the family quarrel.

Accept No Substitute.

There is nothing just as good for Malaria, Chills and Fever as Dr. Mendenhall's Chill and Fever Cure. Take it as a general tonic and at all times in place of quinine. It fails to give satisfaction until the front of the cartoon to J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, Ind., and get your money back.

Fads for Women.

By the way, there is a new pocket book out which looks exactly like a big envelope. The flap fastens with a mock jewel, and the pocketbook is carried swinging from a gold chain, which is supposed to be slipped over the wrist. When one realizes what the average woman's pocketbook holds in the way of keys, samples, hair-pins and powder-puff, this very flap pocketbook does not seem exactly practical. However, it is something new.

The card-case of Egyptian leather is another fad of the moment. It is light tan in color, with printed Egyptian figures and designs in deep brown. It is surely odd enough to be the vogue for a while, and a pleasant change from things Japanese, which we have been unfeigned with ever since the beginning of the Japanese-Russian War.—October, Womens Home Companion.

Good For Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives instant relief in all cases of cough, croup and La Grippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Sold by Woods and Orme, Druggists.

Be Not Forgetful of Others

BY JAMES ROE.

Oh, be not forgetful of others,
Because you are treading today
A path that is sunny and pleasant—

A ill-wear-straw, painful way;
For oh, there are many around you
Still treading the path of despair,

And sore are their feet with the journey,
And great are the burdens they bear

Oh, be not forgetful of others
Because you are out of the strife—
Because neither trouble nor sorrow

Is marring the peace of your life
For, oh, there are many around you
Who know not one moment of peace,
And ever their tear drops are falling
And ever their mornings increase.

Oh, be not forgetful of others,
Because in the Father above
You have found the true source of all blessings,
And tasted the sweets of his love;
For oh, there are many around you
Whom sin has cast down to the grave,
And even your hand-clasp might stay them,
Or even a whisper might save—
—Young People's Weekly.

Pockets Lined With Fish Hooks.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—Rather than face a charge of picking pockets Frank Mitchell forfeited his bail of $400, and thereby hangs the story of how an Indiana lawyer captured a clever crook as the storybooks say.

H. C. Sheridan of Frankfort, Ind., came to the Madison county fair while on a trip to Wisconsin. He had heard that there were many pickpockets about the grounds whom the police were unable to catch and framed up a game to make a capture.

He rather ostentatiously put a roll of bills in his trousers pocket. The crook took the bait, reached in the pocket and grabbed the roll. But Mr Sheridan was up to the game.

He felt the crook's hand reaching for the bills, but his pocket had been picked before, and was lined with fishhooks. It took a doctor to free the crook after he had reached the police station with his captor.

can You Eat?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Charleston, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by Woods & Orme, Druggists.

A London jeweler recently had a thermometer stolen from his shop and the next day he affixed the following notice to his door: "Will the misguided individual who took the thermometer the other day without leave please return the same? He has made a mistake. It can be of no use to him in the place where he is going, as it only registers 125 degrees of heat."

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c. at Woods & Orme's Drug Store.
